Fact Sheet: Western Rock Lobster

Region
Gascoyne Coast, West Coast, South Coast

Summary
Colourful and protected by a strong carapace, the western rock lobster is one of the family of 'spiny' lobsters - and the target of WA's largest and most valuable fishery. This fact sheet explores the basic biology of the western rock lobster.

Download Resource
Fact Sheet - Western Rock Lobster