

Sharing a Shell – order of the story

Name: _____ Date: _____

Cut out the sentences and glue them in the order they happen in the story.

Look! A blob, a bright purple blob.

I'm not a brush, I'm a bristleworm.

A terrible storm, crashing and flashing all night.

A crab with no shell, running along by the sea.

A fish with jaws open wide.

*It's ready. I've done all the housework.
Climb on and come in.*
