

Fact Sheet: Black Bream

Region

West Coast, South Coast

Summary

Black bream is one of the most important recreational and commercial fish species in the estuaries of south-Western Australia. A 'true' estuarine species, black bream complete their whole lifecycle within an estuary and are reliant on healthy rivers and estuaries for their survival. To find out more, download this fact sheet.

Download Resource

Fact Sheet - Black Bream