

Fact Sheet: Sawfish

Region

North Coast, Gascoyne Coast

Summary

The unusual-looking sawfish family are a type of ray and are therefore related to sharks . Found in both marine and freshwater, these predatory fish derive their name from their long snouts lines with sharp points. An identification and general information guide on Sawfish.

Download Resource

Fact Sheet - Sawfish