

Fact Sheet: Threadfin Salmon

Region

North Coast

Summary

With their goggling, oddly placed eyes and their whisker-like pectoral filaments, threadfins are one of the weirder looking Western Australian fish species. Find out more about the biology of these weird looking fish and the commercial fishery in this fact sheet.

Download Resource

Fact Sheet - Threadfins